“Learning a foreign language is, in some ways, like learning how to fly. There are some differences, but there is a very important similarity. It is this: learning how to do these things needs a lot of practice. It is never enough to read a book on how to fly a plane. A book can give you a lot of information about how to fly, but if only read that book, then try to fly without any practice, you will kill yourself. The same is true of learning a foreign language. For example, can you speak English well without having lots of practice? “Practice makes perfect” is what every learner of a foreign language should know”.

STATEMENTS		T	F
29.	Learning a foreign language and learning to fly are the same in an important way.
30.	Information about flying from books is enough for someone to fly.
31.	It is dangerous to try to fly without any real practice.
32.	Practice more and more is the good way to learn English.

(33 – 36) Complete the second sentences in such a way that it means the same as the original one. (4 pts)
